

Put your love for determining the architecture and the TechStack to use and join in our quest to transform the EdTech world by celebrating originality. Learning, knowledge, and creativity stem from promoting original thinking. That is why we built Ouriginal, safeguarding authorship and creative output with a fully-automated system for checking text originality and preventing plagiarism. Already the leading player in Northern Europe, we have been gearing up to support a growing international expansion.

Now we are looking for the next star to join our growing development team. We are looking for a fullstack developer (m/f/d) to support us in the development of cutting edge algorithms and user interfaces for full text analyses, and adapting them to the most modern standards. Our award-winning plagiarism and ghostwriting detection solutions are Cloud-based on the mission to become the universal standard to ensure originality in any kind of written content.
